

NZC LEVEL TWO COACHING COURSE 2019

Delivered by Northern Districts Cricket Association (NDCA)

The NZC Level Two Coaching Course is recommended for coaches that wish to advance their coaching knowledge and skills, which are active coaches at any of the below levels:

- Senior Secondary School
- District Teams (including Senior)
- Premier Club
- Northern Districts Underage Teams

The Level Two Course concentrates on a variety of coaching skills both on and off the field. Curriculum learnings include the following key performances, as well as additional topics critical to performance coaching:

- Detailed planning and evaluation
- Understanding and using principles of bio-mechanics
- Analysing and improving player skills
- Understanding the 'process of coaching' and effective team coaching
- Game tactics and leadership

Each NDCA course is limited to twelve participants and successful applicants are required to pay a course fee of $100.00. All travel/accommodation costs are to be covered by the attendee. Please note that participants from previous courses who did not complete all modules are invited to attend individual sessions as required and must register on/before May 3 2019. The 2019 course will be held at Seddon Park, Hamilton, with coaches required to complete an additional 150-hour coaching log to gain full accreditation.
